1. Statement of Intent

- 1.1 USP College is committed to promoting Equality, Diversity and Inclusion through all its activities including the delivery of high quality teaching, learning and assessment. It believes in promoting equality of opportunity, access, dignity and fairness.
- 1.2 The Equality, Diversity & Inclusion policy meets the requirements of the Equality Act 2010 which replaced all previous equality legislation. The Act provides a single, consolidated source of discrimination law.
- 1.3 The Equality Act brings together under one single piece of legislation:
- a. Disability Discrimination Act 1995 and 2005
  - b. Special Educational Needs and Disability Act 2001
  - c. Employment Equality (Age) regulation 2006
  - d. Employment Equality (Religion and Belief) Regulations 2003
  - e. Employment Equality (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2003
  - f. Equality Act 2010
  - g. Equal Pay Act 1970
  - h. Human Rights Act 1998
  - i. Race Relations Act 1976
  - j. Sex Discrimination Act 1975.
  - k. The Equality Act 2006, Part 2
  - l. The Equality Act (Sexual Orientation) Regulations 2007
- 1.4 The Equality Diversity & Inclusion Policy covers all staff, current students, prospective students and contractors.

2. Public Sector Equality Duty

- 2.1 The Public Sector Equality Duty is set out in section 149 of the Act. The Public Sector Equality Duty is a duty on public bodies and other organisations carrying out public functions.
- 2.2 It ensures that public bodies consider the needs of all individuals in their day-to-day work in shaping policy, in delivering services, and in relation to their own employees.
- 2.3 The Public Sector Equality Duty supports good decision making – it encourages public bodies to understand how different people will be affected by their activities so that policies and services are appropriate and accessible to all and meet different people’s needs.
- 2.4 Since 2018 organisations have been required to produce and publish an Accessibility Statement, which explains how accessible their website is and actions taken to improve this.

3. The Public Sector Equality Duty Aims

- 3.1 The Public Sector Equality Duty has three aims;
- a. It requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to:
    - i. Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct prohibited by the Act.
    - ii. Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.
    - iii. Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

- b. Having due regard to the need to advance equality of opportunity involves considering the need to:
    - i. Remove or minimise disadvantages suffered by people due to their protected characteristics.
    - ii. Meet the needs of people with protected characteristics.
    - iii. Encourage people with protected characteristics to participate in public life or in other activities where their participation is low.
- 3.2 Fostering good relations involves tackling prejudice and promoting understanding between people who share a protected characteristic and others.

4. Protected Characteristics and Equality Objectives

- 4.1 There is a duty for the college to publish its Equality Objectives on a 4-year basis and to report on the progress against these on an annual basis to the Governing Body and to be published on the college website.
- 4.2 The Equality Act 2010 (also known as the Act) states the individual characteristics which are protected by law:
- a. Age
  - b. Disability
  - c. Gender reassignment
  - d. Pregnancy and maternity
  - e. Race - this includes ethnic or national origins, colour or nationality
  - f. Religion or belief
  - g. Sex
  - h. Sexual orientation
  - i. Marriage and civil partnership (only in respect of the requirement to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination).
- 4.3 The implementation of the Equality Act (2010) may require reasonable adjustment and the need to treat some groups or individuals differently to achieve equality outcomes. This may involve:
- a. Providing additional time for examinations or classroom support
  - b. Accessibility settings on the College website
  - c. Additional support for adult students with lower levels of IT proficiency
- 4.4 The implementation of the Equality Act (2010) also explicitly recognises that disabled people's needs may be different from those of non-disabled people. Public bodies should therefore take account of disabled people's impairments when making decisions about policies or services. This might mean making reasonable adjustments or treating disabled people differently than nondisabled people in order to meet their needs
- 4.5 The socio-economic background of an individual is not one of the protected characteristics under the Equality Act 2010. However, within the educational environment the College considers this when guiding and supporting students through their time at the College. Where students are from an area of high deprivation or in receipt of Free School Meals (FSM), they may have low prior educational attainment and lower expectations which may influence negatively on their achievement.

- 4.6 Where College student or staff performance data indicates any groups are underperforming then every action will be taken to address this.

5. Implementing the Public Sector Equality Duty

5.1 The College embeds the three aims of the Public Sector Equality Duty as part of the process of decision-making and implementation. This particularly applies to carrying out Equality Impact Assessments.

5.2 The College ensures that the following principles are followed:

- a. Knowledge - those who work within all areas of the College need to be aware of the requirements of the Equality Duty and approach decision making with the Equality Duty in mind
- b. Timeliness - The College ensures that the Equality Duty is complied with at the time that a particular policy is under consideration or decision is taken
- c. Real Consideration - The College considers the three aims of the Equality Duty and ensures that they form an integral part of the decision-making process. It recognises that the Equality Duty is not a matter of box-ticking but that it is approached with rigour and with an open mind
- d. Sufficient Information - The College supports staff making decisions to consider what information he or she has and what further information may be needed in order to give proper consideration to the Equality Duty
- e. No delegation - The College ensures that any third parties which exercise functions on their behalf, such as sub-contractors are required to comply with the Equality Duty, and that they do so in practice
- f. Review - The College ensures that the aims of the Equality Duty are applied not only when a policy is developed and decided upon, but also when it is implemented and reviewed.

Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Statement & Impact Assessment

USP College is committed to equality of opportunity. The aim is to create an environment in which people treat each other with mutual respect, regardless of: age, disability, family responsibility, marital status, race, colour, ethnicity, nationality, religion or belief, gender, gender identity, transgender, sexual orientation, trade union activity or unrelated criminal convictions.

This form should be used by managers and policy owners within their area of responsibility to carry out Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Impact Assessments (EDIAs) in relation to protected characteristics including, but not limited to: Age, Disability, Gender reassignment, Marriage and civil partnership, Pregnancy and maternity, Race, Religion and belief, Sex, Sexual orientation. The word 'policy' is taken to include strategies, policies, procedures and guidance notes; both formal and informal, internal and external.

4. The Impact

Four possible impacts should be considered as part of the assessment:

- Positive Impact - Where the policy might have a positive impact on a particular protected characteristic.
- None or Little Impact – Where you think a policy does not disadvantage any of the protected characteristics
- Some Impact – Where a policy might disadvantage any of the protected characteristics groups to some extent. This disadvantage may be also differential in the sense that where the negative impact on one particular group of individuals with protected characteristic is likely to be greater than on another.
- Substantial Impact – Where you think that the policy could have a negative impact on any or all of the protected characteristics. This disadvantage may be also differential in the sense that the negative impact on one particular protected characteristic is likely to be greater than on another.

Thought-provoking questions, which might help come to a decision about the impact of a policy on individuals with protected characteristics:

- Does policy outcomes and service take up differ between people with different protected characteristics?
- What key information do we have? Does data or engagement with people with protected characteristics give insights into areas of disadvantage, which relate to the policy area?
- If the policy is likely to have a negative impact on individuals, sharing particular characteristics what steps can be taken to mitigate these effects?
- Will the policy deliver practical benefits for certain groups?

- i. Does the policy miss opportunities to advance equality of opportunity and foster good understanding/ relationships between groups?
- j. Do other policies need to change to make this policy more effective?
- k. Is there any elements of the policy that could be unlawful under the Equality Act 2010?

What cannot be changed?	Can this be justified?	If so, how?
Not applicable
E.g., Disabled people can be treated more favourably under the Disability Discrimination Act 2005. If a policy appears to treat disabled people more favourably than other equality groups, the disadvantage may be justifiable
